

List 34 - Tekst angielski

To: The Prime Minister, Józef Cyrankiewicz, Warsaw:

Restrictions on the allocations of paper for the publication of books and periodicals and the tightening of press censorship create a situation which threatens the development of our national culture. In recognition of the existence of public opinion, the right to criticize, the right of free discussion and honest information, as the necessary elements of progress, the undersigned, motivated by civil concern demand that Polish cultural policy be altered conforming to the rights guaranteed by the Constitution of the Polish state and conducive to national welfare.
